

It is illegal, and for good reason, for big corporations to display such a gross bias in the face of an election. Please stop Sinclair from broadcasting the Kerry smear campaign, so that our next president can be elected democratically instead of purchased by big business. The democratic process is a big part of what makes this country great. When big business affects the playing field in such a powerful and unchecked manner--the decisions made in this country are no longer the people's. This has got to stop.

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line and less of what we need for our democracy. Instead of something produced at "News Central" far away, it's more important that we see real people from our own communities and more substantive news about issues that matter.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
